

Antioch High In Black, Expansion Need Shown

Antioch Community High School is in the black and intends to stay that way, A. L. Dittman, superintendent, said at a luncheon last Friday.

Dittman was host at a luncheon at Antioch High School in which he made a report on the present condition of the school and what the future holds.

He pointed out that the school was in the red when he took over as superintendent in 1952 but by 1956 the black figures started showing.

"The operation has been in the black without borrowing or issuing anticipation warrants for the past 12 years," he said.

Dittman credited the board and the administration with looking at the financial picture and developing budgets with fiscal responsibility, as the reason for the economic brightness of the district.

He told those assembled that the General Assembly and the residents of the district have also been a big help in keeping the red out of the books.

In detailing the years of his administration, Dittman said the board called for a referendum in 1958 and the people responded by granting a 10 cent hike in the educational rate from 65 cents to 75 cents.

The legislature came to the aid of the district in 1964 when it made it possible for districts to increase their educational rate by 9 cents to 84 cents, and then in 1967 hiked it to 90 cents.

Dittman explained that tax disbursements and incomes from other sources have been coming in regularly from the county treasurer's office and funds not needed have been put into an investment program, mainly U. S. treasury bills and certificates of deposits.

"As a result of this program," he said, "the district has, through June 30, 1967, accumulated $65,091 in interest."

He pointed out that in the curriculum portion of the district, a diversified occupation program is being expanded.

Students take academic work in school and go out into industry and business for part of the day. The program, he said, is meeting the need of a very important segment of the school body.

Antioch High School, through this expansion, is sending more students to the Vocational Center at Waukegan than any of the other 14 high schools in the county.

"We were in on the pilot program when it first started," he explained. "The board has gradually expanded the program and in the coming year we expect to have 25 students involved in the program for juniors and seniors for a period of two years."

"Students who are not quite academically qualified to go into the work project program, and who might be potential drop-outs, will now be able to go into the work project program.

He also explained that Antioch is a charter member as a cooperating school in the Special Education program for Lake County. "We now have a class going," he said, "for students from three high schools who are educable, but mentally handicapped."

He explained that in the vocational area the district offers business economics, home economics and industrial arts.

"Audio, visual and instructional materials are excellent," he said, "and the counseling department is staffed with four counselors for 1,600 students."

In a look at the future, Dittman said the district needs more space to properly educate the young people so that they can take advantage of the opportunities they need in modern society. "There were 1,200 students involved in summer programs last year," he said. "Summer school is no longer the place for dummies to go but for students to obtain an enrichment in their education."

Dittman said the student population has increased at a rate of 50 to 75 students per year. There are presently 1,140 students enrolled for the September, 1968 classes and it is anticipated that enrollment will probably be around 1,170.

The maximum capacity of ACHS is considered to be 1,100.

But with the rapid growth of the community, we must look ahead," he said, "because even if a bond issue were voted on this fall and passed, it would take at least two years to complete the building project."

Dittman said the auditorium is now being used for some classes and the gym is too small for the physical education program demanded by the government.

"We do not need gyms as glorified, large arenas for spectator sports," he said, "but to carry on the required physical education program."

Dittman pointed out that the intensified program is being carried out in the district despite the fact that Antioch's tax rate is 11th lowest on the list of 14 school districts in the county with a rate of 1.475.

The only school districts with lower rates are North Chicago with 1.439; Waukegan, with 1.204; and Lake Forest, with 1.157.

Despite the fact that Antioch is the 11th lowest in tax rate in the county, it is 7th highest in assessed valuation with $64,926,672.

The only other communities with higher assessed valuation figures are Highland Park, Lake Forest, Waukegan, Zion-Benton, Libertyville and Barrington.

Library Request Tabled

The Antioch Township Library Board has received notice that its application for a $50,000 federal grant for building purposes has been tabled.

The reason given for the tabling, according to Mrs. Norman Jedele, is that the plan for the library does not meet the 20-year population projection.

Mrs. Jedele said that even though the building proposed was the type that could be added on, it has only space for 10 years of expansion and therefore the request was not acted on.

The present plan calls for 11,000 square feet and architect Robert Freund is presently redrawing the plan to include an additional 2,000

Public Hearing On Water Pollution In Antioch April 30

State Representative W. J. Murphy (R-Antioch) announced today that final arrangements have been made with Representative Carl L. Klein (R-Chicago), Chairman of the Water Pollution and Water Resources Commission, for a Public Hearing of his Commission to be held at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 30th, at the Antioch Savings and Loan on Lake Street in Antioch.

Murphy said the meeting will be conducted by Representative Joseph Tumpach (D-Cook) and that the Commission is actually here to sell the people and the Public Officials of this District on the Billion Dollar Bond Issue which the electorate will be asked to vote on at the General Election in November.

Rep. Murphy has personally invited official representation from the County Board, and from the Municipalities of the district. He urges through this News Release that business leaders, resort owners, and representatives of industries, Chambers of Commerce, and interested private citizens should attend.

He says further, "I would appreciate a good attendance at this meeting to aid me in acquainting this Commission with the problems of our area and to help in evaluating their answers and assurances as to what extent in dollars and cents Lake County will share in this Billion Dollar Bond Issue. We can then ascertain in a responsible manner whether or not we will urge the good people of this area to support or reject this proposal for the Billion Dollar Bond Issue."

Murphy said, "I'm tired of seeing most of our Motor Fuel Tax and Conservation Grants of money being spent in making lakes and reservoirs in Southern Illinois, even with a Lake County resident as our Governor."

The Commission Chairman, Rep. Klein, and the Secretary, Sen. Robert Mitchell, both have stated that they want the citizens and officials of the area to appear and advise the Commission as to what projects in their areas should have priority under the Billion Dollar Bond Issue.

Rep. Murphy said, "I am tired of talk. I want someone in an official capacity to state that we can have LOCAL CONTROL of the flood gates at the McHenry Dam, and some concrete assurances of action and not just more and more talk and vague political promises!"

ACHS Host To Area School Board Members

Antioch High School Board met Wednesday, April 17 and canvassed the vote for the recent school-board election. Robert Lindblad, Dr. Albert Bucar and Bette Meyer were seated on the board.

First business of the new board was reorganization and Bill Brook was elected President and Bob

Mrs. Helen Kopriva was presented a plaque from the board in appreciation of service rendered to the district and community.

The board approved an elective course in theatre where two areas would be stressed. These areas are stage craft and acting. The course can be taken by students as a fifth course in lieu of study hall.

Antioch High School Board invited members of the underlying elementary schools to a dinner at Antioch High School on Wednesday, April 24 at 7 p.m. Guy Cornwell, Associate Director for Illinois Association of School Boards, was the speaker. His subject was Board-Teacher Negotiations and a question and answer period followed.

The board employed Mr. Richard Irpen to serve as custodian or bus driver for nine months of the year.

Miss Alice Trecek resigned as secretary for health reasons. The board voted to make application for funds in the amount of $1,364.58 under Title II - Elementary Education.

Proj. Vietnam Wants Home-Made Cookies

Project Vietnam wants to send home-made cookies—lots of them—to the servicemen on its list and is asking for the cooperation of the entire community to make this possible.

About 50 Antioch area men are presently in Vietnam and Postmaster Joseph Wolf hopes to send at least 3 lbs. of cookies to each man.

Anyone wishing to bake cookies may bring them to Mrs. Christ Schultz at 273 Oakwood Drive, Oakwood Knolls, Antioch. Mrs. Schultz is chairman for this cookie drive.

Also needed are 2 and 3 lb. coffee cans with the air tight plastic covers. These cans can be used by the boys overseas after the cookies are gone.

Cookies and cans may also be left at the Antioch Post Office. Mailing will be made on May 1 so cookies and cans should be ready before that date.

Delicious bakery cookies will also be acceptable from those who do not have the time to bake.

The regular items that Project Vietnam sends to Antioch Area servicemen will be sent as usual, and the May mailing will be done by students of Antioch High School on May 1st. These young people did an outstanding job with the last mailing. Project Vietnam is proud of them and appreciates the fact that they asked to do it again.

Recent donors to Project Vietnam are:

AGS Purchases $64,526 Tract Of Land For Expansion

Antioch is a fast growing community and members of the Antioch Grade School Board are well aware of the problems that will be confronting them in the years ahead with regard to overcrowded schools.

At the present time, Antioch Community Consolidated Grade Schools have 1164 children enrolled. According to Mr. Richard Whitaker, if this rapid rate of growth continues, the school will need additional facilities by September 1970.

Antioch Grade School District No. 34 has accordingly purchased two parcels of land, both vacant, one approximately 52 acres, which joins the other to the west, which consists of 4 lots in Smart's Ridge-moor Subdivision, located in Antioch Township. There is frontage on Rte. 173 west of Lorenz's Smart Country House. The property was purchased from Noel Shinkunas for the sum of $64,526.00.

The new facility will be an upper grade building, according to present plans.

37 Phone Workers On Strike

Thirty-seven members of the Communication Workers are out in Antioch this week as hopes appeared dim for renewed negotiations anytime soon in the nationwide strike of some 200,000 telephone workers.

Don Amundson, manager of the Antioch office of Illinois Bell Telephone Co., said that 11 commercial department people were also out last Friday but reported back to work this week.

Amundson reported that the 37 strikers here are plant men and installers.

Picketing of the Antioch office was going on intermittently with some days no pickets showing up at all.

Amundson said that supervisory personnel were manning the services and "we are getting better at the switchboard as we go along."

A spokesman for the striking AFL-CIO communication workers said in Washington that "there is nothing to report" on the prospect for new wage talks.

There has been no formal bargaining since the strike began eight days ago in some 40 states.

Mrs. Magee, holding Ricky, is the former Patricia Heath of Antioch.

Henry Magee Receives Silver Star Medal

Hospitalman Henry Richard Magee, USN received the nation's third highest citation, the Silver Star Medal, in ceremonies last week at Great Lakes Naval Hospital.

Magee's citation was for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action while serving as a Corpsman with the 9th Marines in Vietnam. The citation read in part: "On July 29, 1967, Hospitalman Magee, disregarding his own safety, unhesitatingly and fearlessly maneuvered across the fire swept terrain and repeatedly placed himself in the most dangerous positions to administer first aid to wounded Marines. On one occasion, while attempting to move a casualty out of the heavy volume of fire, to a place of relative safety, fragments from an exploding enemy grenade seriously wounded him in the chest, arms and face, with temporary loss of his right eye. Ignoring his painful injuries, and hampered by loss of vision in one eye, Magee continued to assist the casualties, refusing treatment and evacuation for himself until the more seriously wounded Marines had received medical aid. His resolute determination and sincere concern for the welfare of his comrades were an inspiration to all who observed him and undoubtedly saved the lives of several Marines."

A coveted ELLAphant Award will be given to a well known county leader for his outstanding Republicanism, and conscientious discharge of his duties for, and in behalf of all citizens of Lake County. This is the highest commendation within the power of the Antioch Township Republican Club to bestow, and is not given lightly.

Club officials will meet this weekend to make the selection and their choice will be announced promptly.

Club officials expect a full house and urge prompt acquisition of invitations. Reservations may be made by calling Elmer Eberman at 395-0607, or by writing him in Antioch.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

President Johnson has placed in sharp focus the rivalry between the Executive and Legislative Branches of Government, i.e., the President vs. the Congress. A strong and influential Chief Executive, President Johnson, demonstrated unprecedented influence in inducing Congress to enact Great Society legislation during his first two years in office (the 89th Congress). Since then his influence has waned and the role of Congress has grown in importance and influence. This development has dismayed and disappointed many leading liberals who find in a strong Chief Executive the maximum opportunity for promoting their social and cultural goals.

A recent series of lectures at Harvard University by McGeorge Bundy, President of the Ford Foundation and former intimate advisor to Presidents Johnson and Kennedy has presented the case for a stronger Executive Branch. Mr. Bundy suggests that the constitutional and traditional authority of Congress over the Nation's purse strings should be delegated to the President in the form of a measure authorizing the President to raise or lower tax rates. Mr. Bundy cites the delay of Congress to pass the tax surcharge as a drawback to effective Federal Government. Also he cites the dearth of first-class executive talent in the President's Cabinet and in other executive offices.

Mr. Bundy speculates on advantages to education, free enterprise, and the entire scientific and cultural community which would flow from a powerful executive capable of making broad decisions. He indicates that such an all-powerful President could release countless billions of dollars in helping to meet the needs and desires of the people of our Nation.

The danger inherent in this proposal is that such an omnipotent Executive Branch would remove governmental authority further from the people. A President who can dominate the entire Congress could effectively nullify the authority and trust placed in the Members of the U. S. House and Senate by the voters themselves.

By citing the delay in imposing a surtax it would seem that Mr. Bundy has made a weak case for augmenting the executive authority. Indeed, the Congress, by requiring the President to reduce expenditures, took a position which was supported more recently by the leading bankers of the free world.

A weakness in the Executive Branch, which Mr. Bundy appears to overlook, is the inability of President Johnson to delegate authority to responsible members of his Cabinet. His Cabinet meetings can hardly be compared with those that were held by former President Eisenhower. President Johnson is the decision maker in the present government, and except for McNamara (who has now left the government)—the Cabinet members appear to be mere figureheads obeying the Johnson commands.

In delaying the imposition of a tax surcharge, in demanding expenditure controls, in the enactment of anti-riot laws, in the reform of the social security system aimed at discouraging illegitimacy, in the rewriting of tax or expansion of the toll system seem to be the only means by which Illinois can meet the highway demand that is already far ahead of planning.

The suggestion made here last week that a fair housing ordinance for the unincorporated areas of Lake County might be a subject of consideration by the County board was not warmly received.

This despite the fact that several county communities have adopted such a code along with the Federal government. Lake County could be a leader in this area since no counties in the state have adopted an open housing ordinance, although three counties, Kane, DuPage, and Sangamon have created county Human Relations Commissions or committees.

If you have time you might drop a card to Wes Koehler, popular county purchasing agent, who is languishing unhappily in Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan. A bond issue and increased gas anti-crime legislation, and in many other actions, the Federal Congress is responding to the demands and the needs of the American people in a way that the President himself seems not to have understood.

The 1968 elections offer an opportunity to consider this issue. It may not always produce a partisan position. Indeed, congressional candidates campaigning under both the Democratic and Republican Party labels will be contesting the thesis of Mr. Bundy. Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Thanks to the generosity of our neighbors in Lake Villa, and to you for your help in calling attention to United Cerebral Palsy's annual fund-raising appeal, the "53-minute March" on January 14, we had a very successful campaign.

With the campaign nearing completion, I am, very pleased to be able to report that our collection locally amounted to $679.89.

As USP Chairman of Lake Villa, I also want to thank the volunteers who gave so generously of their time to collect these funds. There were 135 men and women in our area who took part in the "March." Favorable Tax Climate Needed For Industry Growth In State

A tax climate that encourages efficiency, innovation and a sustained and economical drive toward important goals is a leading contributor to the State's economic growth and social progress, according to Maurice W. Scott, Executive Vice President of the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois.

The home owner and business and industry must have the freedom to achieve earnings or there will be no better tomorrow. Taxes are an expense of doing business, the same as the expense of a new roof on a home or on a factory. If they get out of line, the home will not be kept up as it should be and the industry that would have expanded within the State's borders will look elsewhere for a site.

In Illinois utilities probably pay more total taxes than any other sector of the economy. Commonwealth Edison Company of Chicago being probably the State's largest taxpayer. Illinois Bell Telephone Company is among the leaders, paying $200,221,000 in taxes in 1967 in addition to $88,607,000 collected from the customers as Federal excise taxes and turned over to the government. Caterpillar Tractor Company paid $8,251,000 in State and local taxes alone in 1967, an increase of about 31% over the year before. Railroads and other businesses and industry also paid large tax bills in 1967. Most of such taxes are recouped from the consumer as a part of the product that businesses sell.

A healthy tax climate in these days of competition means better education, jobs for people and community and cultural growth. The new economics relative to taxes seems to pay little attention to equality between revenues and expenditures in any given fiscal year. It seems to increase the rate of taking revenues from the taxpayer when the economy is surging and to decrease the rate when the economy is going into a recession.

The tax policy of days gone by appears to have more sense. This policy followed the principle that it was best to raise the money to meet government's expenses in the fairest, least expensive way and with a minimum of governmental interference. In the light of today's complex society, competition and community needs, this appears the best policy to follow to keep one of the chief costs of doing business, taxes, in line with other expenses. In other words, efficiency and economy, basic tenets of the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois, are still a vital partnership to any taxpayer, whether he be a home-owner or a large business concern.

Courthouse Notebook

The recent U. S. Supreme Court ruling that local governing bodies must conform to the "one man, one vote" rule could open a "can of worms" according to some of the members of the Lake County Board of Supervisors.

The ruling is expected to force the realignment of city wards in those communities with aldermanic form of government and will almost certainly mean some realignment on the county board.

The change could even reach into appointive taxing bodies such as drainage districts and sanitary districts where, the governing trustees are appointed by the Circuit Court judge, according to West Deerfield Supervisor Bruce Frost following a recent meeting of the Illinois General Assembly's special committee on local government problems.

Supervisor Frost pointed out that trustees for special districts are appointed by judges who are virtually assured of tenure and that therefore the people have no way to unseat the trustees.

Virtually any local taxing body will be subject to challenge under the broadest interpretation of the new Supreme Court decision. Noble in concept though the ruling may be and scholarly in its goal the decision is going to create one helluva mess in local government, a mess that will surpass any ephemeral benefits likely to accrue to the allegedly disenfranchised voter.

New highway construction could well become a major issue in the battle for the Republican nomination for Governor which is beginning to pick up steam.

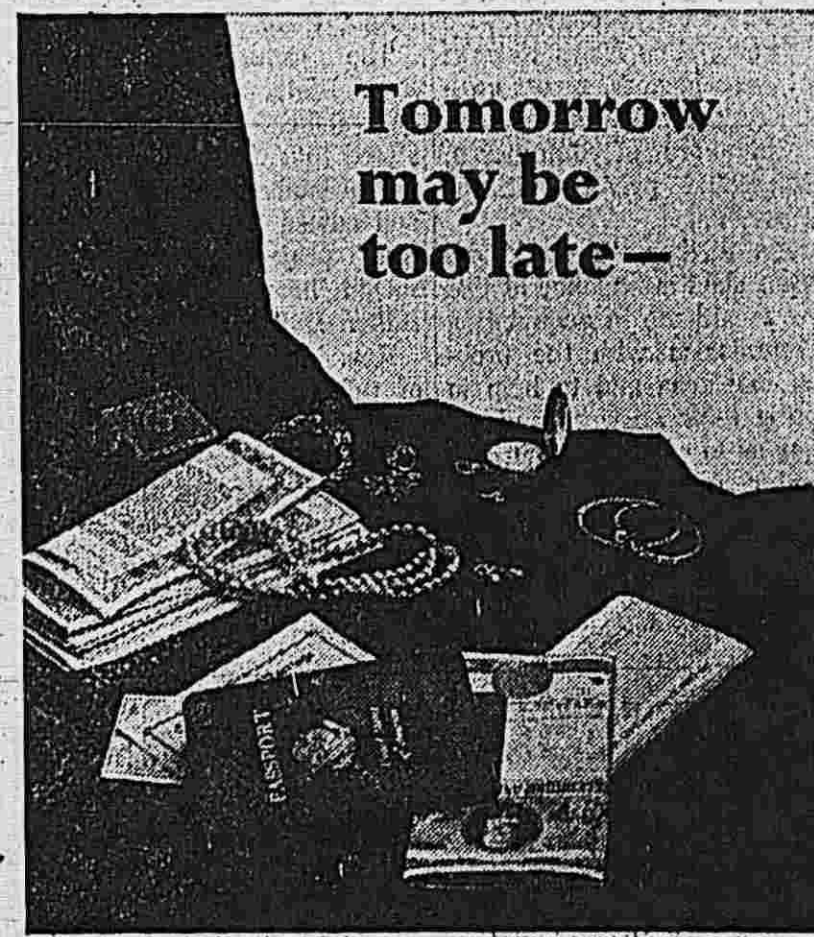

Former Gov. William G. Stratton, who introduced the toll road to Illinois during his prior tenure in the Executive Mansion in Springfield, has come out strong for a massive highway bond issue to meet the demand for a modern adequate highway system today.

The highway needs certainly cannot be met with current revenues, but it seems to us that Gov. Stratton and the other candidates will have to face up to the fact that along with the bond issue will have to come an increase in the motor fuel tax.

The current motor fuel tax revenue available for retirement of such bonds under Stratton's proposal would be gobbled up in bond interest according to some estimates.

Many people in Illinois look longingly at the freeway systems in Michigan and Wisconsin among neighboring states, but they tend to forget that Illinois is well down the list in the gas taxing rates charged by the states.

Dwyer Applauds Open Housing Bill; Decries Violence

Robert A. Dwyer, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor has termed Congressional passage of a new civil rights bill "a tremendous achievement."

"I hope it will prevent any more death and destruction on the streets of Chicago," Dwyer told a Chicago Republican gathering.

At the same time, Dwyer stressed that the legislative action did not result from racial rioting which followed the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King.

"This country does not now act under the threat of blackmail, and it will not do so in the future," the Winnetka executive said.

"This particular action," Dwyer added, "was assured before the wild mobs tore into our cities."

"This action was guaranteed by Illinois' own Republican Congressman, John Anderson of Rockford, who cast the vote which brought the bill to the floor of the House. I commend the Congressman for that historic step."

Dwyer expressed hope that the Congressional action would make militant Negro leaders "aware that the vast majority of black people and white people in this country respect the law and the political process."

"These people," Dwyer added, will continue to act legally and they will not permit government by a gun in the back at any time. There is no reward for violence."

Dwyer continued, "This country, the state of Illinois, and the city of Chicago are determined to do what is right. But the blackmail of violence is not going to speed the process."

"We are not going to rebuild America according to the specifications of those who would destroy it."

No Nixon Organization In District

William H. Rentschler of Lake Forest, state chairman of Illinois for Nixon, official Presidential campaign organization in Illinois for the former Vice President, said that no authorized Nixon organization has yet been established in the 12th Congressional District, which includes the Antioch area, or elsewhere in the state.

Rentschler referred specifically to a so-called "12th District Voters for Nixon" group, which was announced recently in district newspapers.

"While we are naturally delighted to see evidence of this growing support for Dick Nixon, I want to make it absolutely clear that neither this group nor any other has official status, nor has it been authorized by Mr. Nixon, his staff, or his Illinois organization," Rentschler said.

"Dick Nixon has touched off a real prairie fire in Illinois and throughout much of the nation," Rentschler said. "This is great news for all citizens who yearn to see this frustrated and divided nation steered back onto a path of progress, harmony and moral righteousness."

"The widespread enthusiasm we see for Nixon surely extends to the 12th District, where he is the overwhelming favorite of discriminating voters."

"At the right time, there will be plenty to do for all who want to aid the Nixon cause, and we think the many thousands who at this early date are volunteering their time, their money, and their spontaneous enthusiasm."

"Our single objective is the nomination and election of this thoughtful, experienced and dedicated American leader, the one man who can provide the new decisive, far-seeing leadership this nation needs so desperately," Rentschler concluded.

New Consumer Protections Listed In Free Booklet

Attorney General William G. Clark has issued a new brochure designed to help safeguard Illinois consumers from fraud and deception.

The pocket-size booklet, available to the public free of charge, lists many of the new consumer protections provided by a series of new laws, which became effective January 1, 1968.

Explained, for example, is the new three-day "cooling off" law, which allows the buyer three full business days in which to cancel a contract on unsolicited door-to-door sales of $50 or more.

The booklet cautions buyers against other fraud techniques and cites actual examples of "bait" advertising, referral selling, false advertising, misrepresentation, debt harassment, selling under false pretenses, phony repairs and self-improvement contracts.

The Attorney General lists other protective buying topics relating to contracts, oral agreements, sale "lures" and explains WHERE and HOW to get help if the consumer suspects he has been defrauded.

"The booklets are available—free—from: William G. Clark, Consumer Fraud Division, 160 North LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill. 60601.

Charmglow Leader In Gas Grill Field

This could well be the BIG year for gas-fired outdoor grills. Some ten years ago, the first of the revolutionary backyard cooking devices came on the scene and, in the ensuing decade, their popularity has skyrocketed. Today, gas-fired "barbecue grills" are being manufactured by leading firms across the country and steady inroads are being made in a market formerly dominated by charcoal-burning grills.

Among the many reasons given for the growing trend to gas-fired grills are warm-up and cooking speed, the cleanliness of gas and re-usable artificial briquets as opposed to charcoal, and the safety of controlled heat and no starter fluids. Also, gas-fired grills can be regulated for the best cooking heat for each type of food. And, with all these advantages, foods cooked on a gas grill have exactly the same wonderful flavor and aroma as those prepared on conventional charcoal units!

Probably the most notable pioneer and one of the largest producers of gas-fired outdoor grills is Charmglow Products, Inc., which also holds a commanding lead in the sale of gas yard lights. This year, the Antioch firm is introducing its "second generation" of grills, with all models featuring increased cooking space for today's growing family needs.

"12 Angry Men" At Salem Hi Fri. & Sat.

The last dramatic offering for this current school year from the Drama Department of Salem Central High School will take place Friday, April 26th and Saturday, April 27th at 8 p.m. when the award winning three-act drama "Twelve Angry Men" will be presented.

The play, which originated on TV's "Studio One" and then later made into a successful movie, won an Emmy award for writer Reginald Rose. The drama concerns twelve jurors in a jury room deliberating the fate of a boy accused of stabbing his father to death. Tickets for "Twelve Angry Men" are available at the door and the play will be staged in the school's gymnasium. There are no reserved seats.

The cast for the production includes John Grumbeck as the jury foreman; Becky Greslik, Jim VanLiere, Sue Keirs, Tom Nemeth, Sue Kosik, Richard Glover, Nandy Neuens, Don Symonds, Mike Tremont, Mary Zworgzdas, and Mike Wagner as the other eleven jurors; and Jim Erdman as the guard. Terry Havel is director of the production with Karen Erickson and Robin Holm serving as assistant directors. Jim Ford is the production's stage manager with Steve Durkin assisting.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: We are not of the night, nor of darkness."

This verse from First Thessalonians is part of the Responsive Reading from the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday. The subject is "Probation after Death."

Among passages included from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy is the following: "The divine demand, 'Be ye therefore perfect,' is scientific, and the human footsteps leading to perfection are indispensable. Individuals are consistent who, watching and praying, can 'run, and not be weary; ... walk, and not faint,' who gain good rapidly and hold their position, or attain slowly and yield not to discouragement. God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rt. 173 & Harden, Antioch, begin at 11:00 A.M. The public is invited to attend.

Antioch's determination to win was very evident in the first inning when the Sequoits scored three runs. Pleviak took first on error by Grant, third baseman; Comstock walked and Drije struck out. Zancck hit a dribbler behind the mound which went for a single and loaded the bases. Jerry Martin hit a single, scoring Pleviak and Comstock. Martin was out trying to stretch his hit to a double. ing starts the 1968 season at Wilmot on Saturday night, May 18.

The drivers and owners have formed the Interstate Racing Association and this promises Kenosha County Speedway fans not only the top thrills by these champions, but the appearance of other top contenders like Billy Bohn of Kenosha, Jr. Dodd of Waukegan and Jim Sullivan of Antioch plus many, many others.

A ten event program of racing will be held each Saturday night throughout the summer at Wilmot, plus two special holiday eve events on Wednesday, May 29 and July 3.

The lone Illinois driver of this group of champions is Duane Harris of Lake Villa who has the sole distinction of having won track championships at three tracks in the past three years. Harris was champion at Wilmot in 1965, Lake Geneva in 1966 and won his third straight title at Waukegan last year.

Don Sorce of West Allis is the fourth champion of the group. Don won his championship at Wilmot in 1961.

Soph Baseball Team Wins 2 And Loses 3

Twenty-three boys reported for sophomore baseball. Of the 23, there are 21 remaining.

Antioch started their season this year by losing to Zion-Benton 5-0, and losing to Wilmot 9-5. They were defeating Lake Zurich 12-7, but the game was called at the end of the 4th inning due to darkness, and must be replayed.

In the Lake Forest game, the boys were winning 4-1, in the last half of the seventh inning, with two outs and a man on first. The pitcher walked two men. The next man hit a triple, and Antioch threw the ball into stands and were defeated 5-4.

Coach Andrew Hauptman was ready to pull out his hair! He sat down and talked baseball with the boys—discussing the game and what it is all about, and instructed the boys to "think" baseball. The team is not poor in ability but lack baseball "savvy," according to Hauptman.

The sophs were successful in their next game, defeating Carmel 13-6. Carmel won the second game 4-1.

The following week Antioch defeated Grayslake 12-6, so at the present time the record is 2 wins and 3 losses.

According to Coach Hauptman, the main problem now is getting a third pitcher. Jim Rockov and Bill Albano are the two mound standbys, but a third pitcher is badly needed.

Coach Hauptman feels that the sophs will win more games this season than they will lose and have the potential for fine baseball team.

Sequoits Lose Golf Openers

The Sequoit Golf Squad has been working out since March 26 and as of this date has completed in three matches.

Of the 21 boys that make up the squad, one is a senior, two are juniors and the balance is made up of freshmen and sophomores.

From the 1967 squad, which placed second in the conference, losing only 4 of 14 matches, only one letterman, Don Effinger, returns.

The squad is young and lacks experience, but has the potential for developing into a winning combination in a year or two.

Boys who have shown improvement and are playing on the varsity team are: Don Effinger, a junior; Don Sherwood, a senior and sophomores Dave Longly, Jim Weiss, Tom Tossey and Ted DeBoer.

McHenry won the April 11 matches with a score of 175 to Antioch's 210. Individual scoring was as follows:

Don Effinger 53 — Frank Cuda 40. Dave Longly 50—Tim Martin 43. Jim Weiss 54—Mark Demoto 45. Ted DeBoer 53—Jim Michels 47.

Antioch lost the match with Carmel on April 16 with a score of 181 to Carmel's 168. Individual scoring was as follows:

Don Effinger 43—Bob Maypede 39. Dave Longly 44—Craig Camalo 42. Jim Weiss 45—Mike Kelly 42. Don Sherwood 49—Larry Zaccarelli 45.

In the match with St. Joseph of Kenosha, Antioch scored 193 to St. Joseph's 173 to lose the match. Individual scores were:

Don Effinger 50—Mike Bode 40. Dave Longly 49—Kirk Matara 46. Jim Weiss 46—Rick Wilkams 42. Don Sherwood 48—Jim Chubirico 45.

Ray Page Predicts Advent of 12 Month School Year Soon

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Ray Page predicted the advent of a 12-month school year in the not-too-distant future.

Page indicated in a speech delivered at Northern Illinois University that a 12-month year would probably be based on a tri-semester system in which students would attend two of the three semesters.

The superintendent also indicated that the full-year plan would put the school buildings to good use and get a better return for taxes, in addition to cutting down vandalism of school buildings which normally occurs during summer.

Page indicated that the 12-month plan will continue to receive in-depth study before any official action takes place.

REASONABLE CONCLUSION

A research director of a major agency was ordered to prepare a study about fleas. He put a flea on his desk and trained it to jump over his fingers at his command. Then he pulled out two of the flea's legs. "Jump," he ordered and the flea still jumped. Two more legs came off. Again the flea jumped. Finally he pulled off the last two. "Jump," he commanded. The flea did not move. With that, the director wrote his report: "When a flea loses all six legs, it becomes deaf."

Pedestrians can do much to protect themselves in traffic. Safe walking tips for pedestrians are: Always cross at corners, not in the middle of the block; cross with the light at all times; and look in all directions before starting across a street. Pedestrians who observe these precautions will have a better chance of avoiding perilous situations.

SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

REGULATING YOUR BODY'S "SPEEDOMETER"

Are you the type who's always flustered about, overactive and underweight?

Or are you inclined to be slow, sluggish, easily tired, overweight, and generally disinterested in life?

Both problems can be traced to one vital organ in your body—the thyroid.

Located just over the windpipe in the front portion of the neck, the thyroid gland is a butterfly-shaped organ that produces a highly-active body chemical called thyroxine. As thyroxine flows through the blood, it acts very much like a physical "speedometer"—regulating the rate at which body cells consume energy and produce heat.

If the thyroid produces too little thyroxine, your body "speedometer" slows down, accompanied by such symptoms as coldness, sluggishness, dry skin and scanty growth of hair. In serious cases the body tissues may fill with fluid and create a swollen appearance called "myxedema."

Persons whose thyroid secretes too much thyroxine experience opposite symptoms. Their reactions are stepped up; there is weight loss despite increased appetite, warmth and sweating, nervousness, pounding of the

Don't Do Business With Strangers...

Older people and women living alone should be aware of the dangers involved in doing business with strangers who come to their door. The "special deal" on roofing, siding, termite proofing, lightning rods, or furnace repairs should be warning enough that someone is after your bank account.

Do not sign your name to anything brought to your door by strangers. Your reputable local merchants do not require your signature on any contract or agreement in order to do work or supply materials. Those contracts are written, and presented for your signature, for one purpose only: to bind you. The fast-talking people at your door will tell you it is a special demonstration deal, or that they had the materials left over and will sell them cheap. We can almost say that a majority of these cases turn out to be a swindle. Do not, we will repeat, do not sign any papers for people you do not know!

From the Oneonta, Ala., Democrat: "It strikes us that today's youth are aware of the world and the place in it that they are preparing for. Their self-confidence and readiness to take their places in the affairs of the state are truly encouraging despite the publicity given a minority who seem to be in rebellion against time-honored values."

Bicycle riding can be fun, says the Chicago Motor Club-AAA, but also it can be dangerous, especially for those who don't know or don't obey the rules of the road. Bicyclists enjoy the same privileges as motorists, but they also must heed all the basic traffic rules and regulations.

It is better to remain silent and appear a fool than to speak and remove all doubt.

Every school child is a moving traffic sign, warning us to slow down and drive with extra care when they are in the area.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our wife and mother, Hazel Cunningham who passed away April 26, 1967. Deep in our hearts lies a picture of a loved one laid to rest. In memory's frame we shall keep it. Because she was one of the best. She had a nature you couldn't help loving. A heart that was purer than gold. And to those who knew and loved her. Her memory will never grow old. Sadly missed by her husband, Harvey and daughter, Patricia and family.

of your neighbors*

have stopped baking pies!

Maybe it's because they discovered Jane Parker Pies... thousands have.

But...you say, "No thanks, there is nothing like a good home-baked pie." We agree...they're great."

But would you believe it if we told you our Jane Parker Pies taste home-baked? Probably not...until you've tried one.

Then you'd discover the crust is short and flaky like your own.

You'd discover the fruit is the kind you'd use... the best...juicy, not stiff with starch.

And if you popped a Jane Parker Pie into the oven and warmed it before serving, you'd discover a pie you'd be proud to call your own.

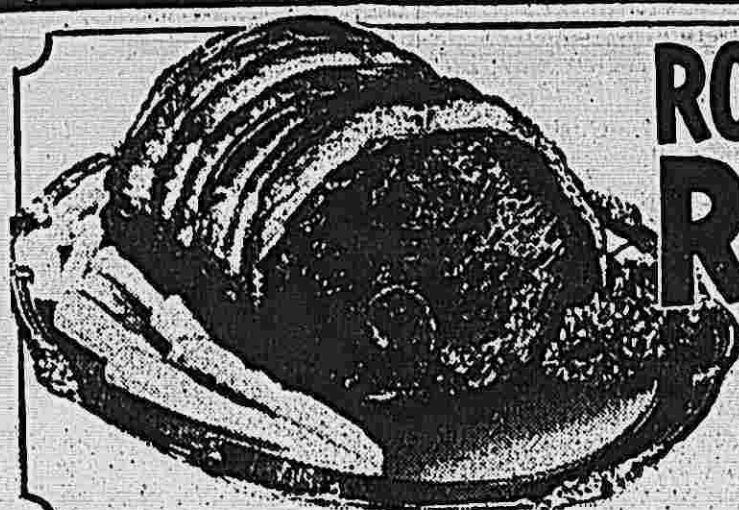

Are Jane Parker Pies a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.
